

CAMDR Conference 2016: Discover Medical Device Reprocessing Johnson & Johnson Award of Excellence

About the Johnson & Johnson Award of Excellence

Johnson & Johnson has collaborated with CAMDR to provide the Johnson & Johnson Award of Excellence for 2016. This award recognizes CAMDR members who are front-line staff (Sterile Supply Technicians, Medical Device Reprocessing Technicians, Team Leads) working in the field of medical device reprocessing. The award is for up to $1,000 to assist with registration, travel, and accommodation costs associated with the 2016 CAMDR Conference. The amount of funding distributed will depend upon the applicant's submitted expense report.

Criteria

The recipient must meet the following criteria:

- Must have successfully completed an approved Medical Device Reprocessing Technician (MDRT)/Sterile Supply Technician (SST) course;
- Must be a current member of CAMDR;
- Must be currently employed in the field of medical device reprocessing;
- Must have made a recognized contribution to the field of medical device reprocessing or to the Association;
- Consideration will be given to those with financial need.

The recipient must be in attendance at the 2016 CAMDR Conference to receive this award. If the successful recipient is not in attendance, the award will be passed to another participant.

Registration

Apply for this award by completing the attached CAMDR Award Application Form, which can also be found on our website at www.CAMDR.ca. The CAMDR Committee will bring forth only those names that have met the above criteria. Registration is open until September 30, 2016.

The Award

The award will be presented by Johnson & Johnson to the successful recipient(s) at the 2016 CAMDR Conference. CAMDR wishes to thank Johnson & Johnson for their support.
